Main Attractions

What main films will play at the Garden? This section lists the Main Attractions that we intend to play in the coming weeks. Additional unlisted films will also become available. This list is only an educated guess, though, since film release plans often change.

When will these main films play?
Scheduling our Main Attractions is week-to-week. On Monday, we decide what main films will play starting that Friday. On Tuesday and Wednesday, we set the showtimes for the upcoming week and then update our website and telephone hotline. We also send out a weekly email (which you can receive by signing up at our website). Sometimes, we book a main film a few weeks in advance, which we post on our website’s “Coming Attractions” section.

For our latest Main Attractions plans, visit: PrincetonGardenTheatre.org (Or call our hotline at 609-279-1999.)

Cold War
Poland - Pawel Pawlikowski
1 hr 28 min - w/ subtitles
COLD WAR is a beautiful black-and-white film from Pawel Pawlikowski, the director of 2016’s Academy Award-winning Ida. His latest spans 15 years and several European countries in a post-war drama that follows the dramatic love story of two Polish musicians. This film hits all of the notes of classic European art house film.

On the Basis of Sex
USA - Mimi Leder - 2 hr
The story of young lawyer Ruth Bader Ginsburg as she brings a groundbreaking case before the U.S. Court of Appeals and overturns a history of gender discrimination. Felicity Jones stars as Ginsburg and Armie Hammer plays her husband. Also with Kathy Bates, Justin Theroux, and Sam Waterston.

Stan & Ollie
UK - Jon S. Baird - 1 hr 37 min
Steve Coogan and John C. Reilly star as comedy icons Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy in this charming period piece. After several disappointing film releases, the duo embarks on a grueling theater tour of post-war Britain to win back their audience. Reilly and Coogan have undeniable chemistry and bring to life the unseen side of these comedic legends.

Cold War
USA - Mimi Leder - 2 hr
The story of young lawyer Ruth Bader Ginsburg as she brings a groundbreaking case before the U.S. Court of Appeals and overturns a history of gender discrimination. Felicity Jones stars as Ginsburg and Armie Hammer plays her husband. Also with Kathy Bates, Justin Theroux, and Sam Waterston.
At Eternity’s Gate
UK - Julian Schnabel - 1 hr 50 min
Willem Dafoe takes on the role of Vincent van Gogh in his final years. Director Schnabel, also an artist, brings an imaginative eye to Van Gogh’s work and illness by experimenting with cinematography and narrative storytelling. The film creates a unique experience rather than a traditional biopic. Dafoe gives an inspired performance, supported by Oscar Isaac and Rupert Friend.

If Beale Street Could Talk
USA - Barry Jenkins - 1 hr 57 min
Director Barry Jenkins’ follow-up to the 2016 Best Picture Winner Moonlight. Set in 1970s Harlem, this poetic adaptation of James Baldwin’s last novel is about a young couple who are planning their life together when one of them is wrongly accused of a crime. Jenkins’ gorgeous cinematic technique mirrors the thoughtful prose of Baldwin’s text. Featuring wonderful performances from KiKi Layne and Stephan James.

Everybody Knows
Spain - Asghar Farhadi - 2 hr 12 min w/ subtitles
Penélope Cruz plays Laura, a woman living in Buenos Aires who returns home to a small town near Madrid for her sister’s wedding. When the wedding is interrupted by unexpected events, Laura’s past secrets and family troubles are brought to the surface. A brilliant mystery from celebrated Iranian screenwriter and director Asghar Farhadi. Also starring Javier Bardem.
If Beale Street Could Talk

USA - Peter Farrelly - 2 hr 10 min
Mahershala Ali and Viggo Mortensen star in this uplifting drama about a dignified African-American pianist who hires a rough-edged Italian-American bouncer to chauffeur him across the American South in the 1960s. Based on the true story of Don Shirley, GREEN BOOK is an exploration of race and friendship elevated by two exceptional performances, which bring the right touch of humor to a serious subject.

The Favourite

UK - Yorgos Lanthimos - 2 hr
A hilarious look at 18th century royalty from celebrated Greek director Yorgos Lanthimos. Olivia Colman plays the frail and mercurial Queen Anne of England, whose friend Lady Sarah governs on her behalf. A new servant, Abigail, arrives and soon maneuvers to gain royal influence. This wild, irreverent film also features Emma Stone and Rachel Weisz.

Mary Queen of Scots

UK - Josie Rourke - 2 hr 5 min
Saoirse Ronan stars as Mary Stuart in this elegant and fascinating period piece set in the 16th century. After becoming the Queen of France at 16 and widowed at 18, Mary returns to her native Scotland and is embroiled in the politics of religion and the contentious claims to the throne of England. Also starring Margot Robbie as Queen Elizabeth I.

Green Book

USA - Peter Farrelly - 2 hr 10 min

Shoplifters

Japan - Hirokazu Koreeda - 2 hr 1 min w/ subtitles
Japanese filmmaker Hirokazu Koreeda won the Palme d’Or at this year’s Cannes Film Festival for this wonderful, understated drama. SHOPLIFTERS follows a group of misfit petty criminals, young and old, who form a family unit and share a small apartment. Despite the family’s troubles, Koreeda finds moments of humor in this poignant and affecting film.

Mary and the Witch's Flower
2017 - 1 hr 43 min - Japan - color - DCP
d: Hiromasa Yonebayashi - w/ subtitles

Studio Ghibli animator Hiromasa Yonebayashi directs this dazzling adventure story about a young girl named Mary, who discovers a flower that grants magical powers for one night. It’s an action-packed film full of imaginative worlds and ingenious characters. Based on Mary Stewart’s children’s book “The Little Broomstick.”

Liyana
2017 - 1 hr 17 min - Swaziland - color - DCP
d: Amanda Kopp, Aaron Kopp

Five orphaned children in Swaziland collaborate to tell a story about a girl who embarks on a dangerous quest to rescue her young twin brothers. Their fictional character’s journey, depicted through animation, is interwoven with poetic and observational documentary scenes to create a genre-defying celebration of collective storytelling, perseverance, and the power of creativity.

It's A Wonderful Life
1946 - 2hr 10min – USA – b/w  DCP
d: Frank Capra – w/ Jimmy Stewart, Donna Reed, Lionel Barrymore

Our annual screening of this inspirational, heartwarming, holiday classic. Jimmy Stewart stars as a selfless small-town banker on the verge of ruin. Contemplating suicide, he is visited by an angel who shows him that, despite his lost dreams, the impact of his good work has improved countless lives.

Arrive at 7:00 to hear live holiday classics performed by Princeton Symphony Orchestra principal harpist André Tarantiles.

Oscar Wilde Season

The Importance of Being Earnest
Running time: TBD

The final installment of Classic Spring Theatre Company’s Oscar Wilde Season. Wilde’s beloved masterpiece about two bachelors leading double lives is a high comedy of manners and one of theater’s most dazzling clever displays. Michael Fentiman’s new production stars Sophie Thompson, Jeremy Swift, Fiona Button, Pippa Nixon, and Stella Gonet.

The Madness of George III
3 hr 30 min w/ intermissions

This new production of Alan Bennett’s play is from England’s Nottingham Playhouse and features Mark Gatiss and Adrian Scarborough. It’s 1786 and King George III is the most powerful man in the world, but his behavior is becoming increasingly erratic. With the King’s mind unravelling, ambitious politicians and the scheming Prince of Wales threaten to unseat George and expose the fine line between King and man.

Dear Friends of the Princeton Garden Theatre,

Thank you for your support of the nonprofit Princeton Garden Theatre. This past year, your contributions allowed us to develop innovative programs like our yearlong “Breaking the Celluloid Ceiling” Series, celebrating the important work of women in film. We’ve also expanded our “Prof Picks” and “Local Filmmaker” Series. With your support, we will continue to bring diverse programming to the Garden. We’ve screened over 170 films so far in 2018!

We need your help to continue to improve our programming. Your financial support elevates the film experience at the Garden by underwriting our collaborations with partners such as Princeton University and the Princeton Public Library. Variety in our film and event offerings is crucial to our mission to educate, enrich, and entertain our community.

Please consider making a tax-deductible donation to the Princeton Garden Theatre’s 2018 Annual Appeal. Your additional gift makes it possible for us to continue to improve the theater, present diverse programming, and operate in a sustainable way.

Make your tax-deductible gift today in one of two ways: (1) by mail, using the form below, or (2) online at PrincetonGardenTheatre.org/donate.

THANK YOU.

National Theatre Live

Antony & Cleopatra
Mar 3 Sun 12:30
3 hr 40 min w/ intermissions
Ralph Fiennes and Sophie Okonedo play Shakespeare’s famous, fated couple in his great tragedy of politics, passion, and power. Roman General Mark Antony and Egyptian Queen Cleopatra have fallen fiercely in love. In a tragic fight between devotion and duty, obsession becomes a catalyst for war. Filmed live from the National Theatre and directed by Simon Godwin.
Tickets: $18 General; $16 Members

University Center for Human Values

Moynihan
Mar 7 Thurs 7:30
2018 - 1 hr 42 min - color - DCP
d: Joe Dorman, Toby Perl Freilich
Daniel Patrick Moynihan was an influential intellectual, and sociologist, policy specialist, ambassador, and long-serving senator. He was a man who embraced the contradictions and complexity of public policy. Fifteen years after his death, the first feature length documentary about his life captures Moynihan as never before.
Presented in partnership with the Princeton University Center for Human Values. The screening will be followed by in-person conversation with filmmakers Joe Dorman and Toby Perl Freilich and Princeton University Sociology Professor Kathryn Edin.

Royal Opera

La Traviata
Mar 10 Sun 12:30
3 hr 20 min w/ 2 intermissions
Richard Eyre’s stunning production of Verdi’s best-loved opera features star soprano Ermonela Jaho as Violetta, Charles Castronovo as Alfredo, and Plácido Domingo as Giorgio Germont. Eyre’s stunning naturalistic production contrasts the superficial glamour of 19th-century Parisian high life with intimate scenes for Violetta with Alfredo and Giorgio Germont, culminating in the heartbreaking final act. Verdi’s sublime score contains some of his most inspired arias and duets.

Art on Screen
Mar 24 Sun 12:30
Van Gogh: Of Wheat Fields and Clouded Skies
1 hr 30 min
A stunning new exploration of the life and work of Van Gogh, through the legacy of the largest private collection of his work: 40 remarkable paintings and 85 drawings from the Kröller-Müller Museum in Holland. These works, now in the exhibition “Of Wheat Fields and Clouded Skies” at the Basilica Palladiana in Vicenza, bring a special focus on the importance of drawing as part Van Gogh’s artistic process.
Tickets: $14 General; $12 Members

Caravaggio: The Soul and The Blood
1 hr 30 min
A visually stunning journey through the struggles and successes of the revolutionary and controversial artist Caravaggio, who painted in Milan, Venice, Rome, Naples, Sicily, and Malta in the early 17th century. Utilizing state-of-the-art cinematic techniques, commentary from leading art historians, and unprecedented access to the masterpieces themselves, CARAVAGGIO is a must-see for any art lover.
Tickets: $14 General; $12 Members

The Tragedy of King Richard the Second
2 hr 30 min w/ intermissions
Simon Russell Beale plays Richard II in the Almeida Theatre’s production of Shakespeare’s play. Richard II, King of England, is irresponsible, foolish, and vain. His weak leadership sends his kingdom into disarray and his court into uproar. Seeing no other option but to seize power, the ambitious Bolingbroke challenges the throne and the king’s divine right to rule. This visceral new production is directed by Joe Hill-Gibbins.
Tickets: $18 General; $16 Members

National Theatre Live

Prof Picks
Prof Picks is our ongoing series in which we invite members of the local academic community to select and present a film that relates to their field of study. This year we saw a wide variety of topics from Neuroscience to Theology to Animation.

Breaking the Celluloid Ceiling
To honor the legacy of legendary Hollywood actor and groundbreaking director Ida Lupino, we spent 2018 highlighting the roles women play in film and behind the camera. We have adopted the “F-Rating” designation to identify and promote films written and directed by women. Our goal going forward is to promote equity in the films we choose and to celebrate movies from a more diverse group of filmmakers.

49 Films by Female Filmmakers
Women accounted for 24% of all the films shown at the theater and 28% of our main run films.

Summer Member Drive Exceeds Goal
This summer we held our first ever membership drive and it was a great success! Our goal was to bring in 150 first-time Garden members. After campaigning online, on screen, and in person at the theater, we surpassed that goal with 190 first-time members.
